

Reaching over 75,000 People Throughout the World

Hat Life, established in 1892, is the only publication in the world that covers every facet of the headwear industry. With a loyal readership of retailers, manufacturers, designers, and buyers, the 300+ page book, published yearly, straddles a groundbreaking editorial section and a detailed, robust directory of thousands of companies in America, Asia and beyond.

The Hat Life website is a dynamic extension of the print directory, featuring more than 10,000 users and thousands of online listings. This extraordinary website works as a virtual meeting place connecting everyone from manufacturers to buyers in an easy to navigate online setting. The Hat Life Showrooms are an electronic version of advertiser's print ads along with detailed company information.

The Buzz, our marquee email product, lands in the in-boxes of almost 30,000 industry giants every other week. This award-winning newsletter is penned by industry mainstay Diane Feen, a former fashion buyer and award winning journalist.
